THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF NEW WESTMINSTER
(the "Employer"),

OF THE FIRST PART

And:

LOCAL 213, THE INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS
(the "Union"),

OF THE SECOND PART

1. COVERAGE

WHEREAS the City is an employer within the meaning of the Labour Relations Code, being Chapter 244 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1996;

AND WHEREAS the Union represents all of those employees in the Electric Utility of the Employer except members of the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 387 and those employees excluded by the Labour Relations Code;

AND WHEREAS the Employer and the Union have carried on collective bargaining under the provisions of the Labour Relations Code and have reached an agreement as hereinafter expressed;

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH:

2. TERM OF AGREEMENT

- a) This Agreement will be for a term of three (3) years with effect from the first day of April 2012 to the thirty-first day of March 2015, both dates inclusive, and will remain in full force and effect from year to year thereafter unless either party within four (4) months immediately preceding the date of expiry of this Agreement, or the thirty-first day of March in any subsequent year, gives to the other party written notice of its desire to change, amend, or terminate such Agreement.
- b) The operation of Subsections (2) and (3) of Section 50 of the Labour Relations Code is hereby excluded from and will not be applicable to this Agreement.

3. EMPLOYEE DEFINITIONS

Effective 2014 July 07:

- a) A 'Regular Employee' is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis for an indefinite period of time.
- b) A 'Temporary Employee' is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis, for a definite and limited period of time up to a maximum of one (1) year (which may be cut short by circumstances which could not be foreseen at the time of hiring). The one (1) year period may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. In the event extensions are agreed to and the work extends beyond three (3) years, the position and the incumbent will become permanent and the incumbent will be recognized as a Regular Full-Time Employee. Seniority will be based on the start date of the temporary assignment.

4. UNION SECURITY

- a) All employees covered by this Agreement will, within thirty (30) days of the signing of this Agreement or within thirty (30) days from the date of commencing employment if not already a member of Local 213 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, make application for membership in the Union, and if accepted, will become and remain a member of the Union while employed in any capacity covered by this Agreement.
- b) The Employer will deduct monthly from each employee an amount equal to the Union dues and assessments in accordance with the By-laws of the Union and transmit the amounts so deducted to the Treasurer of the Union at the end of each month. The Union will provide the Employer with a copy of its By-laws as may from time to time be in force.
- c) The Union reserves the right to discipline its members for violation of its Laws, Rules and Agreements.

5. WORKING CONDITIONS

5.1 Hours of Work

- a) The normal hours of work will be from 08:00 to 12:00 and from 12:30 to 16:00 Monday to Friday inclusive, on the basis of thirty-seven and one-half (37½) hours per week.

Where service to the customer or the efficiency of the work requires it, an employee's hours of work may be temporarily varied to one of the following provided the employee has been given a minimum of two (2) calendar days' notice:

- (i) from 06:00 to 10:00 and from 10:30 to 14:00; or
 - (ii) from 10:00 to 14:00 and from 14:30 to 18:00.
- b) Time worked during an employee's lunch break will be paid as overtime in accordance with Article 6.4 only if the lunch break is not provided within one (1) hour immediately preceding or immediately after the scheduled lunch break.
- c) Employees will not be required to work on Labour Day except to preserve life or property.

5.2 Temporary Suspension of Work

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, in cases of circumstances beyond the control of the Employer, for example, but not limited to, strikes, lock-outs or work shortages, the Employer may temporarily reduce or suspend the hours of work of employees for a period of time not to exceed twenty (20) continuous working days. Commencing on the second (2nd) day, the Employer will attempt to adjust the application of the temporary suspension so that in each category, the least senior employees are affected subject to their competence. Seniority and benefits will be unaffected by the temporary reduction or suspension. Following the commencement of a temporary reduction or suspension of hours of work pursuant to this Article, the Employer and the Union may mutually agree to another method of effecting the temporary reduction or suspension of hours.

5.3 Seniority

In all matters pertaining to employees, providing all factors are equal, seniority will prevail.

5.4 Vacancies

All advertising for new employees or of new positions will be posted in such places as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto.

5.5 Residence

- a) Every employee will as a condition of employment, reside either within the territorial limits of the City of New Westminster or not further than 24 kilometers from those said limits; provided however that every employee must reside on the Lower Mainland of British Columbia;
- b) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Agreement, the Employer will not be required to call out, include in any callout schedule, or assign standby to any employee living outside of the area specified in paragraph (a) above;
- c) Every employee employed by the Employer at the date of signing this Agreement will be required to notify the Employer of their intention to change their place of residence from where they currently reside.

5.6 Probation Period

- a) All new employees will be placed in a probationary capacity until the completion of six (6) months of continuous service. At any time during such period, a probationary employee may be terminated if it can be satisfactorily shown that the probationary employee is unsuitable for regular employment.
- b) If a probationary employee continues in the same position on a fulltime basis, seniority, holiday benefits and other perquisites referable to length of service will be based on the original date of employment.

6. REMUNERATION

6.1 Pay

The rates of pay set out in Schedule "A", which is attached hereto and forms part of this Agreement, will apply during the term of this Agreement.

6.2 Acting Pay

- a) Where an employee is required to work for more than one (1) hour in a higher classification, they will be paid at the rate applicable to the higher classification for all time worked at that classification, provided however that when an employee works more than one (1) hour and less than two (2) hours in this higher classification, they will be paid for two (2) hours at the rate applicable to the higher classification.
- b) When two crews, each under the supervision of a Subforeperson, are assigned to work together, the senior Subforeperson will be paid the Foreperson rate, except when the second crew temporarily joins the work project already in progress in which case the Subforeperson from the first crew will be paid the Foreperson rate.
- c) Where an employee has worked in a higher classification than their normal classification for more than sixty percent (60%) of their total working hours (i.e. hours actually worked and excluding hours paid but not worked) during the calendar year they will receive at the end of the said calendar year a lump sum payment calculated in accordance with the following formula:

(*261 means total normal paid days per year)

Note: Acting Pay premium is equal to the higher rate minus the employee's normal classified rate.

It is understood and agreed by the parties that the original payments for time on vacation will be made on the basis of the rate for the employee's normal classification.

- d) An employee who is acting in a higher classification than their normal classification will receive the higher rate of pay for any statutory holiday where they would have been working in the higher classification on that day except for the occurrence of the holiday.

6.3 Acting Manager

Where an employee is assigned to carry out the duties and responsibilities of a Manager, the employee will be paid at a rate equal to the step on the salary range for the Manager which the Employer determines to be appropriate during such assignment.

6.4 Overtime

Effective 2014 July 19:

- a) Overtime is to be defined in the case of Full-time and Temporary Employees as:
 - i) time worked during an employee's regular lunch break except as provided in Article 5.1(b);
 - ii) time worked immediately following an employee's regular shift;
 - iii) in cases where it has been pre-scheduled by notice provided prior to the end of the previous regular shift, time worked immediately preceding an employee's regular shift; or
 - iv) in cases where it has been pre-scheduled by notice provided prior to the end of the previous regular shift, time worked at any other time;
- b) Double time (2X) for all overtime worked.
- c) Relief will be for a period of not less than eight (8) hours. Any employee called for duty within the four (4) hour period prior to the commencement of their scheduled working hours will be paid double time for all time worked prior to commencement of such scheduled working hours and thereafter at straight time for the next eight (8) working hours and will not be entitled to relief.
- d) When an employee commences overtime work more than four (4) hours prior to their scheduled working day, they will not return to nor continue into their working day unless otherwise requested, until they have had eight (8) hours of time off which will be calculated from the time their overtime work is finished. The employee will be paid for their working day or shift at straight time until the eight (8) hours of rest time expires at which time they must return to work to qualify for the remainder of their working day or shift at straight time rates.

Notwithstanding the above, if the eight (8) hour rest period expires later than the end of the normal luncheon period, an employee will not be required to return to work to qualify for the remainder of the working day or shift at straight time rates.

An employee who is requested to continue working into their working day or requested to return to work before they have completed their eight (8) hour rest period, will continue to be paid at the overtime rate for all time worked, plus straight time for the time their rest period overlaps their day or shift or the difference between the rest period taken and eight (8) hours. At the end of the eight (8) hour rest period they will continue to be paid at the overtime rate until they complete their work. If they are sent home before the end of their working day or shift, they will be paid at the straight time rates for the remainder of their working day or shift.

6.5 Election of Overtime

- a) At the time of working overtime the employee may elect either:
 - i) to take time off equivalent to the overtime earned; or
 - ii) to receive pay for the overtime worked; or
 - iii) to take time off equivalent to fifty percent (50%) of the overtime earned and to receive pay for the remaining fifty percent (50%) of such overtime.
 - iv) Cost Recovery

Notwithstanding items (i) to (iii) above, where an employee works overtime to deal with situations where the Employer is able to recover the overtime costs from the Provincial Emergency Program, the Employer shall have the option of paying the employee for such overtime, or granting the employee time off in lieu of being paid for such overtime.

- b) An employee who elects to bank overtime compensation in accordance with Article 6.5(a) may accumulate up to a maximum of one hundred fifty (150) hours in a bank at any given time. All overtime which would result in an accumulation of more than one hundred fifty (150) hours will be paid to the employee.

6.6 Call-Out

- a) Call-out is to be defined in the case of Full-time and Temporary Employees as being called back to work at any time following completion of an employee's regular shift except when pre-scheduled by notice provided prior to the end of the employee's previous regular shift which is defined as overtime in Article 6.4 above;
- b) Double time (2X) without exception for the time actually worked plus one (1) hour's allowance for travelling to and from home, with a minimum of three (3) hours pay at double time. If additional calls are made upon the employee prior to the expiry of the three (3) hour period or prior to their arrival home, whichever last occurs, such additional calls will not attract an additional three (3) hours minimum, but the employee will be paid for the time actually worked plus an additional one (1) hour's allowance for travelling to and from home. If two (2) separate call-outs are completed within a three (3) hour period, the minimum payment will be four (4) hours at double time.

- c) The following provisions apply in the case of a telephone consultation callout:

Double time (2X) for the time actually worked, with a minimum of two (2) hours at double time for calls which do not require the employee to leave their home. If additional calls are made upon the employee prior to the expiry of the two (2) hour period, such additional calls will not attract an additional two (2) hour minimum, but the employee will be paid for the time actually worked plus one (1) hour's allowance at double time for travelling to and from home whether or not such additional calls actually require the employee to leave their home. If two (2) separate calls are completed within a two (2) hour period, the minimum payment will be three (3) hours double time.

6.7 Standby

- a) Where the needs of the service require employees to be available to perform emergency work during hours which are normally scheduled off, the Employer, by written arrangement with Union representatives or the Shop Steward, may by written order assign employees to standby duty. Standby duty will be equitably assigned to available qualified employees. An employee who is called to duty will be paid at the prevailing overtime rate in addition to Standby pay.
- b) No employee will be requested to stand by for a period of less than a weekend except as provided for in Article 6.7(c) herein. Notification for weekend standby will be given no later than 16:00 hours on the preceding Thursday, or if Thursday is a Statutory Holiday, on the preceding Wednesday. Standby will commence at the conclusion of the last regular working day in the week and will continue until the commencement of the first regular working day of the following week. Ten (10) hours at straight time at the employee's normal rate of pay will be paid to an employee who performs standby duty for a two day weekend and, in addition, four (4) hours at straight time at the employee's normal rate of pay will be paid for each additional working day or Statutory Holiday associated with the aforementioned weekend.
- c) Employees who are requested to stand by for Statutory Holiday(s) that are not associated with a weekend as provided for in Article 6.7(b), will be notified not less than three (3) working days prior to the Statutory Holiday(s). Such standby will commence at the conclusion of the regular working day immediately prior to the Statutory Holiday(s), and will continue until the commencement of the regular working day immediately following the Statutory Holiday(s). An employee will be paid six (6) hours' straight-time pay at their normal rate of pay for standby duty for a single Statutory Holiday and ten (10) hours' straight-time pay at their normal rate of pay for standby duty on two consecutive Statutory Holidays.

6.8 Shift Premium

- a) A shift premium of seventy-five cents ($0.75) (effective 2014 July 19, eighty-five cents ($0.85)) per hour will be paid for all regular hours worked outside of the period 08:00 to 16:00 hours.
- b) Shift premium is not applicable to premium hours such as overtime, callout, etc., or to paid time not worked such as vacation, sick leave, holidays, etc.

6.9 Retirement Pay

Any Full-time Employee who was employed prior to 1990 January 29; and Scheduling of the deferred vacation will be subject to the discretion of the General Manager or designate whose approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

11. LAYOFF AND RECALL

11.1 Conflicting Provisions

In the event of a conflict between this Article and any other provision of this Agreement, this Article will apply.

11.2 Definitions

For the purpose of this Article, the following definitions apply.

"Layoff" means a reduction in the work force for an indefinite period of time.

“Work Force” means Full-Time Employees, it being understood that Temporary employees and Probationary employees will be eliminated by category subject to their competence before a layoff occurs in that category.

“Competent” means having the skills, knowledge and abilities, as evaluated by the Employer, and the requisite Certificate of Apprenticeship, to perform the duties and fulfill the responsibilities of a position and “competence” has a similar meaning.

“Category Seniority” means length of continuous fulltime employment since the last date of hire into the category held at the time of the layoff, except that Apprentices will also retain their immediately preceding category seniority during their apprenticeship.

“Category” means one of those as set out in Schedule “B” except that Apprentices, Chargehands, Forepeople and Sub-Forepeople will be considered in their respective journeyman categories.

“Laid Off Employee” means an employee who ceases work as a result of a layoff but does not include a terminated employee.

“Recall” means the return of a laid off employee, as the regular incumbent, to a Fulltime position in the same category as that held at the time of layoff.

“Terminated Employee” means an employee who is terminated pursuant to paragraph 11.4(vi), or who elects or is deemed to have elected compensation pursuant to paragraph 11.3(iv).

“Other Employment” means work that may be made available by the Employer to laid off employees and does not constitute a recall as herein defined.

11.3 Layoffs

The following principles will apply in the event of a layoff:

- i) A layoff will be effected by the Employer in accordance with the principle that in each category to be reduced the least senior employee(s) will be laid off provided that the remaining employee(s) possess the competence for the remaining positions. An apprentice who possesses category seniority in another category will be given the opportunity to return to his former category provided he is competent and there are employees in that category who possess less category seniority than he does.
- ii) Employees who are to be laid off will be given at least ten (10) working days written notice (or pay in lieu of notice or combination of both) advising them of their effective date of layoff.

- iii) Benefits for laid off employees will cease on the effective date of layoff with the exception of medical, extended health and dental, which will be discontinued effective the end of the month in which the effective date of layoff occurs.
- iv) At least five (5) working days prior to their effective date of layoff, employees will be required to elect in writing to avail themselves of the procedures set forth under paragraph 11.4 Recall OR paragraph 11.5 Compensation. If an employee fails to make such election within the specified time period, the employee will be deemed to have elected 11.5, Compensation.

11.4 Recall

The following will apply only to laid off employees who have elected this process pursuant to paragraph 11.3(iv):

- i) Laid off employees will be eligible for recall for a period of six (6) months following their effective date of layoff.
- ii) The Employer will make every reasonable attempt to contact and recall laid off employees in order of category seniority, subject to their competence.
- iii) In recalling a laid off employee, the Employer will advise the employee by double-registered letter directed to the latest mailing address provided by the employee. If any employee intends to be out of town during their recall period, they will advise the Employer and the Employer may make alternate arrangements for the provision of recall notice. A laid off employee who does not respond within two (2) working days of the Employer's attempt to contact them will no longer be eligible for recall and will be deemed terminated.
- iv) The Employer will specify the time when a laid off employee will report for recall, providing that the Employer will, upon request, allow the employee to report to work up to five (5) working days from the date of the Employer's initial attempt to contact the employee. A laid off employee who refuses to, or does not report as specified by the Employer, as determined in this paragraph, will be deemed terminated, provided however that an employee who cannot report solely due to illness or injury will be bypassed, but will otherwise remain eligible for recall.
- v) Benefits for employees who are recalled will be reinstated effective their first day of work, with the exception of medical, extended health and dental which will be reinstated effective the first day of the month following recall, provided the eligibility period has been met. Service related benefits will be prorated by the period of layoff.
- vi) Laid off employees will be deemed terminated upon the earliest of: refusal of recall, failure to respond to recall pursuant to paragraph 11.4(iii), failure to report for recall pursuant to paragraph 11.4, or failure to be recalled within six (6) months of layoff PROVIDED THAT an employee will not be deemed terminated pursuant to this paragraph while working at other employment as defined herein. Terminated employees will receive written notice of the effective date of termination.

- vii) No new Full-Time Employees will be hired in a category while competent employees are eligible for recall.
