BETWEEN:

THE NORTH VANCOUVER CITY LIBRARY BOARD
(hereinafter called "the Board")

OF THE FIRST PART

AND:

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 389
(hereinafter called "the Union")

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS it is the desire of both parties to this Agreement to maintain the existing harmonious relationship between the Board and the employees, to recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiation in all matters pertaining to promoting the well-being, morale and security of those employees included in the bargaining unit; and for the purpose of implementing the spirit and intent of the foregoing and without surrendering the right of the Board to determine policy, it is agreed that where a change of policy affects employees' security to a major extent the Union will be advised of such contemplated change and an opportunity afforded to the Union representatives to consult with the Board's representatives in the practical application of such contemplated change;

AND WHEREAS, the parties to the second part have formed a Union, hereinafter called "the Union";

AND WHEREAS, the Board approves and recognizes the Union as sole Bargaining Agency on behalf of its employees;

AND WHEREAS, it is now thought desirable that methods of bargaining and all matters pertaining to the working conditions of the employees be drawn up in an Agreement;

AND WHEREAS, the coverage of this Agreement shall apply to all those employed by the Board who occupy the position classes listed under Schedule "A" of this Agreement and amendments thereto by agreement of the parties or in accordance with the Labour Relations Code:

NOW THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that the parties hereto, in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter contained, agree each with the other as follows:

ARTICLE 1: DURATION OF AGREEMENT

1.1 Term of Agreement

This Agreement shall be for a term of four (4) years with effect from 2012 January 01 to 2015 December 31, both dates inclusive. Should either party hereto at any time within four (4) months immediately preceding the date of expiry of this Agreement by written notice require the other party hereto to commence collective bargaining, or should the parties be deemed to have given notice under Section 46 of the Labour Relations Code this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, and except with respect to changes to rates of pay made pursuant to Article 5.11 of this Agreement, neither party shall make any change nor alter the terms of this Agreement until

- (a) The Union can lawfully strike in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of the Labour Relations Code; or
- (b) The Board can lawfully lock out in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of the Labour Relations Code; or
- (c) The parties shall have concluded a renewal or revision of this Agreement or shall have entered into a new collective agreement;

whichever is the earliest.

The operation of sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 50 of the Labour Relations Code shall be specifically excluded from, and shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

1.2 Written Notice

- (a) Written correspondence or notice in accordance with Article 1.1 of this Article shall be deemed to have been validly given to the Board if it is mailed under Registered Cover and addressed as follows:

North Vancouver City Library Board
120 West 14th Street
North Vancouver, B.C. V7M 1N9

- (b) Such notice shall be deemed to have been validly given to the Union if it is mailed under Registered Cover and addressed as follows:

Canadian Union of Public Employees
Local 389
#255 – 1000 Roosevelt Crescent
North Vancouver, B.C. V7P 1M3

ARTICLE 2: UNION SECURITY

2.1 Union Membership

All present employees who are now members of the Union shall remain members of the Union. All persons employed on or after June 08, 1978, shall become members of the Union by the pay period immediately following completion of thirty (30) calendar days of employment. All such employees shall remain members of the Union as a condition of employment provided that no employee shall be deprived of employment by reason of loss of membership in the Union for reasons other than failure to pay the regular Union dues that all other members of the Union are required to pay to the Union.

2.2 Dues Deduction

The Board agrees to honour assignments of wages for Union Dues and Fees, upon receipt by the Treasurer of a signed authorization form from the employees concerned at least ten (10) days prior to the regular time of making such deductions that month.

2.3 Remittance of Deduction

The Board agrees to remit the deductions, made under Article 2.2 to the Union each month together with a list of those employees from whom such deductions were made. Such deduction and list shall be forwarded to the Union, not later than the tenth (10th) day of the month following the month for which such deductions were made.

ARTICLE 3: EMPLOYMENT DEFINITIONS

A Regular Full-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis of thirty-five (35) or such other number of weekly hours as is recognized in the Collective Agreement as normal for a particular class of positions, for an indefinite period of time.

A Temporary Full-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis as set forth above, for a definite and limited period of time (which may be extended or cut short by circumstances which could not be foreseen at the time of hiring).

Where Temporary Full-Time Employees are hired for a specific project and are advised at the time of being hired of the expected duration of the project, the Board will notify the Union as soon as possible in the event circumstances subsequently arise which have the effect of terminating the project earlier than had been expected and announced.

A Regular Part-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a regular part-time schedule of weekly hours which are less than the number constituting full-time employment for a particular class of positions, for an indefinite period of time.

An Auxiliary Employee is any other employee.

ARTICLE 4: HOURS OF WORK

4.1 Regular Hours

The regular hours of work shall not exceed seven (7) consecutive hours per day, exclusive of one-half (½) hour meal break, or thirty-five (35) hours per week within a five (5) day work week.

4.2 Days of Rest

Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees who work twenty (20) or more hours each week in a single position shall have two (2) consecutive days of rest each work week, one (1) of which shall be Sunday.

All Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees who work twenty (20) or more hours each week in a single position and who were hired after 2003 January 01 shall have two (2) consecutive days of rest each work week except when changing work weeks, one (1) of which shall be Sunday.

Nothing in this Article shall prevent protected employees from working rotating shifts by mutual agreement between the employee and the Employer.

Effective 2013 July 18, the Employer and the Union agree that Regular Part-Time Employees who work twenty (20) hours or more per week may choose to accept auxiliary pool hours which result in them not having two (2) consecutive days off in each work week.

4.3 Hours Free Between Work Periods

(i) Except where a provision in the Agreement or a currently accepted practice specifically contemplates otherwise, (for example, the Overtime, Callout, and non-standard work week provisions) employees shall have not less than eight (8) consecutive hours free from work between each shift worked and not less than thirty-two (32) consecutive hours free from work between each week.

(ii) Where an employee is required to work within the eight (8) or thirty-two (32) hour free period, the time worked during the work free period shall be subject to the appropriate overtime provisions.

4.4 Eating Period

The eating period provided under Article 4.1 above shall be scheduled so as to prevent any employee from working more than five (5) consecutive hours without an eating period.

4.5 Rest Periods

A fifteen (15) minute rest period shall be allowed during the first half of each working shift and a further fifteen (15) minute rest period during the second half. The Chief Librarian or designate will designate the time an employee's rest period may be taken.

4.6 Split Shift

Where an employee works a split shift, the shift shall be completed within twelve (12) hours of commencing such shift.

4.7 Work Schedules

Work schedules shall be posted two (2) weeks in advance of the effective date and such schedules will remain in effect for a period of one (1) month subject to sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) following:

- (1) Changes to posted schedules may be made when necessary due to circumstances beyond the control of the Chief Librarian.
- (2) Employees desiring a change of work schedule or work location will be given favourable consideration by the Chief Librarian or designate provided the request is for good and sufficient reason and any job vacancy so created can be filled without cost or inconvenience to the Board.

4.8 Sunday Opening

Notwithstanding Article 4.2, in the event that the Board elects to provide Library Services on Sundays, the following conditions shall apply:

1. The Board shall schedule employees to work Sunday subject only to the following conditions:
 - (a) The Board will not require Regular Full-Time and Regular Part-Time Employees hired prior to 1992 April 09 to work on Sundays.
 - (b) Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees shall not be required to work more than one (1) Sunday in a four (4) week period. Nothing in this Article shall prevent the Board from scheduling such an employee to work more than one (1) Sunday in a four (4) week period if the employee so desires. The above one (1) Sunday in a four (4) week period restriction is not applicable to employees hired after 2004 June 27 or to an Auxiliary Employee who obtains a regular full-time or regular part-time position.
 - (c) Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees who work twenty (20) or more hours each week in a single position shall have two (2) consecutive days of rest each work week except when they are required to change their work week, provided that an employee shall not work more than five (5) consecutive days without a day of rest.
2. The regular hours of work for employees working on Sunday shall be up to seven (7) hours between 10:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. Regular Full-Time Employees shall work a minimum of four (4) hours and forty (40) minutes.

Shift premium shall not be paid for time worked on a Sunday.

3. (a) Where, due to a public holiday, the Library is closed on a Saturday and/or a Monday, the Board shall not open on the Sunday immediately adjacent to the public holiday and shall schedule employees accordingly.
- (b) The Board shall not open the Library on a Sunday that falls between Christmas Day and New Year's Day and shall schedule employees accordingly.
4. Regular Full-Time Employees shall be paid at time and one-half their regular rate of pay for all regularly scheduled hours worked on a Sunday. All other employees shall be paid at their regular rate of pay. Time worked on a Sunday pursuant to this Article shall not be considered as overtime.
5. The straight-time equivalent of the hours worked by a Regular Full-Time Employee on Sunday shall be counted towards the employee's regular weekly hours and the balance of the regular weekly hours shall be worked on four (4) other days during the week they worked on the Sunday. For example, an employee who worked 4 hours and 40 minutes at $1\frac{1}{2}X$ on Sunday, shall work 28 hours [$35 - (4\frac{2}{3} \times 1\frac{1}{2})$] on four (4) other days.
6. In the event the Board elects to discontinue providing Library Services on Sundays, it shall provide the Union with a minimum of four (4) weeks' written notice.

ARTICLE 5: CLASSIFICATION AND PAY

5.1 Probation Period

- (a) All full-time employees shall serve a probationary period of six (6) months, and
- (b) In the event an employee is promoted to a higher rated position, that person shall be considered to be on probation for a period of not more than three (3) months. If at the end of the probationary period the employee is not considered satisfactory in the higher rated position, that person shall be returned to their previous position without loss of seniority.
- (c) Where a probationary employee is absent for ten (10) or more working days during the probationary period described in paragraph (a) above, the probationary period shall be extended by the total number of days absent.

5.2 Pay for Acting in a Senior Capacity

On every occasion an employee is temporarily required to accept the responsibilities and carry out the duties incident to a position covered by this Agreement which is senior to the position which the employee normally holds, for a period of four (4) hours or more, the employee shall be paid for the entire period during which the duties of the senior position are carried out at the minimum rate in the scale for such senior position, except where the salary received in the employee's own position is equal to, or exceeds the minimum of the senior position in which case the employee shall receive the next higher rate in the pay range for the senior position. Where an employee, after reverting to the position which the employee normally holds, is again required to accept the responsibilities and carry out the duties incident to a position covered by this Agreement which is senior to the position, the employee must carry out the duties of the senior position for a minimum of four (4) hours before receiving the pay for the senior position calculated in the manner hereinbefore provided in this Article.

It is agreed and understood that all such assignments shall be made by the Chief Librarian or designate and will be communicated in writing to the employee so affected.

5.3 Shift Premium

Regular Full-Time Employees shall be paid a shift premium of seventy-five cents (75¢) (effective 2014 June 12, eighty-five cents (85¢) for all regular hours worked between the hours of 6:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m.

5.4 Wages and Salaries

(a) Wages and salaries for all employees shall be in accordance with Schedule "A" attached hereto and forming part of this Agreement. Upon promotion, an employee shall be paid at the minimum rate in the salary range for the higher classification or at the salary range rate that is immediately above their previous salary range rate, whichever is the higher.

(b) Derivation of Bi-Weekly and Monthly Rates

The hourly rates set forth in Schedule "A" shall be the basis for application of any general salary increases. The formula for converting the hourly rates to bi-weekly and monthly rates is as follows:

$$\begin{array}{rclcl} \text{hourly} & & \text{bi-weekly} & & \text{bi-weekly rate (taken} \\ \text{rate} & \times & \text{hours} & = & \text{to 2 decimal places)} \\ & & & & \\ \frac{\text{bi-weekly rate} \times 26.089}{12} & = & & & \text{monthly rate (taken to} \\ & & & & \text{the nearest dollar)} \end{array}$$

5.5 Increments

The steps in the salary range in Schedule "A" are to be awarded as set out below, provided they have been earned by the employee and are recommended by the Chief Librarian. In the event that the Chief Librarian does not consider that an employee merits an increase to the next step in their range, the Chief Librarian shall advise the Union and the employee of the reason(s) for withholding the increment and also advise the employee as to how the employee may improve efficiency, and that the progress of such employee will be reviewed within six (6) months, to ascertain whether the employee's work has improved sufficiently to warrant an increase in the salary range.

Pay Grades 9 to 14:	6 months eligibility to move from steps 1 to 2 and 2 to 3; thereafter 12 months eligibility.
Pay Grade 15:	6 months eligibility to move from step 1 to step 2; thereafter 12 month eligibility.
Pay Grade 16 and above:	12 month eligibility.

5.6 Daily Guarantee

- (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c), an employee reporting for the scheduled shift on the call of the Employer, shall receive the regular hourly rate of pay for the entire period spent at the place of work, with a minimum of two (2) hours' pay at the regular hourly rate.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c), an employee other than a school student on a school day who commences work on a scheduled shift, shall receive the regular hourly rate of pay for the entire period spent at the place of work, with a minimum of four (4) hours' pay at the regular hourly rate.

Subject to the provisions of subsection (c), the Daily Guarantee shall be reduced from four (4) hours to two (2) hours for Regular Part-Time and Auxiliary Employees when attending staff meetings and/or training sessions to a maximum of four (4) occasions per employee per year. This provision shall not be applicable to Saturdays, Sundays or Public Holidays and attendance by Auxiliary Employees shall be voluntary.

- (c) In any case where an employee (i) reports for the regular shift but refuses to commence work, or (ii) commences work but refuses to continue working, the employee shall not be entitled to receive the minimum payments set forth in subsections (a) and (b).

5.7 Callout

- (a) Callout is defined as being called back to work at any time following completion of a Regular Full-Time Employee's or Temporary Full-Time Employee's regular shift except when pre-scheduled by notice provided prior to the end of the employee's previous regular shift which is defined as overtime in Article 5.8.
- (b) A Regular Full-Time Employee or Temporary Full-Time Employee who is called out shall be paid double time without exception for the time actually worked plus one (1) hour's allowance for travelling to and from home, with a minimum of three (3) hours' pay at double time (the minimum includes one (1) hour for travelling time).
- (c) If additional calls are made upon a Regular Full-Time Employee or Temporary Full-Time Employee prior to the expiry of the three (3) hour period or prior to arrival home, whichever last occurs, such additional calls shall not attract an additional three (3) hours minimum, but the employee shall be paid for the time actually worked plus an additional one (1) hour's allowance for travelling to and from home. If two separate callouts are completed within a three (3) hour period, the minimum payment shall be four (4) hours at double time (the minimum includes two (2) hours for travelling time).

- (d) Notwithstanding the callout minimum, an employee who is at the work place prior to the commencement of the employee's regular shift and who is required to commence work prior to the commencement of the employee's regular shift, shall be paid in accordance with the overtime provisions for the actual time worked prior to the commencement of the employee's regular shift.
- (e) When an employee is contacted by a supervisory authority or designate for assistance while off duty, and is able to deal with the problem over the telephone or by computer and does not have to report to a worksite, the employee shall be paid one (1) hour pay at double the employee's regular rate of pay. Multiple telephone calls/pages within a one (1) hour period will be treated as one (1) event for the purpose of pay. Consecutive events lasting more than one (1) hour will be paid for actual time worked. An employee will not be eligible for this form of Callout should a return to the worksite Callout (paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above) result from the issue being discussed.

5.8 Overtime

- (a) Overtime shall be defined for Regular Full-Time and Temporary Full-Time Employees as:
 - (1) time worked, immediately following the employee's regular shift;
 - (2) time worked immediately preceding the employee's regular shift where it has been prescheduled by notice provided prior to the end of the employee's previous regular shift;
 - (3) time worked at any other time where it has been prescheduled by notice provided prior to the end of the employee's previous regular shift except as provided in Article 7.7.
- (b) Regular Full-Time Employees and Temporary Full-Time Employees shall be paid for the performance of overtime work under Article (a) at the following overtime rates:
 - (1) time and one-half the rate of pay for the first two (2) hours of overtime worked immediately preceding or immediately following an employee's regular shift.
 - (2) double the rate of pay for all overtime worked in excess of the first two (2) hours thereof worked immediately preceding or immediately following an employee's regular shift.
 - (3) double the rate of pay for all overtime worked at any other time than at the times set forth in items (1) or (2) of 5.8(b). Employees shall be paid a minimum of one and one-half (1½) hours at double time for overtime worked pursuant to this paragraph (b)(3).

- (c) The provisions of Article 5.8 shall apply to overtime work authorized by the Chief Librarian or designate.

- (d) Banking Overtime

An employee shall elect at the time of working overtime whether to be paid for it or instead to receive compensating time off in lieu. An employee who elects to receive compensating time off, shall be credited with compensating time off equivalent to the number of hours (which shall be converted to a dollar amount for accounting purposes) which the employee would have been paid for the overtime worked, and, subject to an employee's request to be granted compensating time off being approved by the Chief Librarian or designate, such employee shall be granted any portion of the credited compensating time off at the pay rate or rates in effect at the time the overtime in question was worked. All compensating time off credited during a particular calendar year but which has not been granted to an employee by March 31st of the immediately following year shall be paid in cash at that time at the pay rate or rates in effect at the time the overtime in question was worked.

- (e) For the purpose of computing regular hours for overtime purposes, overtime hours shall not be considered as regular hours worked.

5.9 Meal Periods

- (a) During Overtime

If a Regular Full-Time Employee or Temporary Full-Time Employee is required to work overtime immediately following or immediately preceding the employee's regular shift under Article 5.8(a)(1) or (2) then upon the completion by the employee of two (2) continuous hours of such overtime work, the employee shall be given a paid meal period of one-half (½) hour which the Board may permit the employee to begin at any time within the two (2) hour period; provided however that, except in the case of an emergency, the meal periods shall begin no later than the end of the two (2) hour work period. Upon the completion of each succeeding three and one-half (3½) continuous hours of overtime work, the employee shall be given another paid meal period of one-half (½) hour which, except in an emergency, shall be taken no later than the end of each three and one-half (3½) hour work period.

- (b) During Overtime, Call-Outs and Pre-Scheduled Overtime

A Regular Full-Time Employee or Temporary Full-Time Employee who completes three and one-half (3½) continuous hours of callout work or overtime work occurring at any time other than immediately following or immediately preceding the employee's regular shift shall be given a paid meal period of one-half (½) hour which the Board may permit the employee to begin at any time within the three and one-half (3½) hour work period; provided however, that, except in the case of an emergency, the meal period shall begin no later than the end of the three and one-half (3½) hour work period. Upon the completion of each succeeding three and one-half (3½) continuous hours of callout work or overtime work, the employee shall be given another paid meal period of one-half (½) hour which, except in an emergency, shall be taken no later than the end of each three and one-half (3½) hour work period.

- (c) For each meal period given to an employee under Article 5.9(a), or Article 5.9(b) the employee shall be paid one-half (½) hour's pay at double the employee's regular rate of pay.
- (d) Where by reason of an emergency it is not feasible to give a meal period at the designated time under Article 5.9(a) or Article 5.9(b) it shall be taken as soon as practicable and in addition the Board shall be responsible for supplying a reasonable form of nourishment during the course of the work at such time as the employee would have been otherwise entitled to a paid meal period.

5.10 Effective Dates of Individual Pay Adjustments

Individual pay adjustments arising from periodic increments, reclassifications, revaluations and promotions (but not for acting in a higher capacity) are to commence at the beginning of the bi-weekly pay period the first day of which is nearest the calendar date of the pay adjustment.

N.B. This item is not intended to interfere with current provisions regarding pay for acting in a higher capacity.

5.11 Job Evaluation

Section 1: Class Specifications

The Board shall prepare and maintain class specifications describing the duties, responsibilities and requirements of all positions covered by this Agreement and shall provide the Union with copies of same.

Section 2: Changes in Classification

Where, during the term of this Agreement the Union or incumbent employee believe that

- (a) a position has been allocated to an inappropriate class; or
- (b) an existing position has been inappropriately reclassified; or
- (c) a new position has been inappropriately classified

such matter shall be the subject of discussions between the parties, and failing agreement within sixty (60) calendar days, the Union may resolve any dispute relating to classification by referring the matter to step (c) of the Grievance Procedure.

Section 3: Changes in Valuation

Where, during the term of this Agreement

- (a) the Union believes that a class is incorrectly valued; or
- (b) the Board revalues an existing class or values a new class covered by this Agreement

such matter shall be the subject of discussions between the parties, and failing agreement within sixty (60) calendar days the Union may resolve any dispute relating to the valuation of a class by referring the matter to the next round of collective bargaining between the parties. By mutual agreement the Union and the Board may refer a valuation dispute to a third party for final and binding resolution.

Section 4: Effective Dates

Any change in rate of pay for an employee as a result of either reclassification or revaluation pursuant to Sections 2 and 3 above shall be retroactive to the date the position was filled in the case of a new position, to the date the reclassification or revaluation was initiated in the case of an existing position, or to any other date mutually agreed to by the parties.

ARTICLE 6: EMPLOYMENT

6.1 Posting Vacancies

- (a) All staff vacancies known to be of sixty (60) days or longer shall be posted for six (6) working days and all eligible employees shall be permitted to apply. If the Chief Librarian or designate deems it necessary to fill the vacancy for the six (6) day posting period, this may be accomplished by employing a part-time or temporary employee without further posting notice.
- (b) It is unnecessary to post vacancies of less than sixty (60) days.
- (c) No posting is required for Page vacancies which may be filled as required by the Chief Librarian or designate.
- (d) Where vacancies exist or new positions are created, notice shall be posted on the staff notice board, and a copy giving full particulars shall be mailed to the Secretary of the Union. Notices shall contain the following information: Nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift, wage or salary rate or range, and anticipated length of any temporary assignment, if posted. The position shall be filled on a regular basis no later than thirty (30) days after the posting of the notice. The Secretary of the Union shall be informed, in writing, of the name of the successful applicant within seven (7) days of the position being filled. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may for any reason refrain from filling any position which becomes vacant, or may defer making an appointment if all applicants fail to meet the requirements of the position.

6.2 Seniority

- (a) In making promotions, demotions or transfers, the required knowledge, ability and skills for the position shall be the primary consideration and where in the opinion of the Chief Librarian, two or more applicants are equally capable of fulfilling the duties of the position, the length of service with the Library Board shall be the determining factor.
- (b) In calculating the length of service of any employee, it is agreed and understood that where an employee is absent due to Maternity Leave, Workers' Compensation, Sick Leave, or paid Leave of Absence officially granted, such periods of absence shall be calculated as a part of the employee's service for the determination of eligibility for perquisites and in determining the length of service of the employee.
- (c) Upon request, the Board shall provide the Union with a seniority list for employees covered by this Collective Agreement at least once in each calendar year.

6.3 Layoffs

- (a) In the event of a lay-off, employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority within their occupation group. For the purpose of interpreting and applying this Article there shall be two recognized occupation groups, that of librarians, and that of library support staff.
- (b) For the purpose of determining and exercising seniority rights pursuant to this agreement the following shall apply:

All present employees, except those defined as Auxiliary Employees pursuant to Article 3, shall be assigned to one of the two Regular Seniority Pools, according to their occupation group as defined in 6.3 (a) above, and their accumulated seniority shall be recognized as their length of service from the initial date of their employment with the Library Board.

- (c) Advance Notice of Layoff

ARTICLE 8: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

8.1 Procedure

During the term of this Agreement, any difference concerning the discipline, suspension or dismissal of an employee or the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of the Agreement, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, shall without stoppage of work, be the subject of collective bargaining between the Union and the Board, and shall be finally and conclusively settled under and by the following procedure:

- (a) The Grievance shall be stated in writing, within ten (10) working days, it being understood that this period may be extended by mutual agreement, and shall state that the matter is a Grievance in accordance with this Article and shall be submitted to the Chief Librarian.
- (b) Should the Chief Librarian be unable to settle the matter within three (3) working days following receipt of the letter of grievance, step (c) shall be invoked.

(c) The grievance shall be discussed between representatives of the Library Board, the aggrieved employee, the Grievance Committee of the Union and/or the Official Representative of the Union. Failing settlement in this step within seven (7) working days, step (d) shall be invoked. However, the said seven (7) days may be extended by mutual consent of both parties to this Agreement.

(d) Effective 2014 June 12:

The parties shall use a single Arbitrator to hear the grievance unless either party requests a three (3) member Arbitration Board.

Either party shall notify the other, in writing, of the question(s) to be arbitrated (the "Written Notice").

Where the parties use a single Arbitrator, the parties shall, within ten (10) calendar days after receiving the Written Notice, discuss who shall be appointed as the Arbitrator. If the parties fail to mutually agree to the single Arbitrator within the ten (10) calendar day period, the appointment shall be made by the Director, Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau upon the written request of either party.

Where the parties use a three member Arbitration Board, the party who issues the Written Notice shall advise the other party of the name and address of its chosen representative on the Arbitration Board. After receiving such notice, the other party shall, within ten (10) calendar days appoint its representative on the Arbitration Board and give notice, in writing of such appointment to the other party. The representatives of the parties concerned shall meet within ten (10) calendar days of the appointment of the last representative and endeavour to select the third member, who shall be Chairperson. If, within ten (10) calendar days of their first meeting, the two representatives fail to select a third member as Chairperson, either party to this Agreement may request the Director, Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau to appoint a Chairperson.

Where a single Arbitrator is used, each party shall pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the expenses and compensation of the Arbitrator. Where a three person Arbitration Board is used, each party shall bear the expenses of its appointed representative and shall pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the expenses and compensation of the Arbitrator.

(e) At any meeting, held for the purpose of discussing a grievance under this Article 8, the grievor shall be accompanied by a union representative or representatives of the Union's choice.

8.2 Wrongful Dismissal

Where under Article 8 an Arbitration Board finds that an employee has been dismissed, suspended or otherwise disciplined for other than proper cause, such Arbitration Board may:

- (a) direct the Board to reinstate the employee and pay to the employee a sum equal to wages lost by reason of dismissal, suspension, or other discipline, or such lesser sum as, in the opinion of the Arbitration Board, is fair and reasonable; or
- (b) make such other order as it considers fair and reasonable, having regard to the terms of this agreement.

ARTICLE 9: TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

During the term of this Agreement any disputes arising in relation to adjustment to technological change shall be discussed between the bargaining representatives of the two parties to this Agreement. Where the Board introduces, or intends to introduce, a technological change, that:

- (a) affects the terms and conditions, or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Agreement applies; and
- (b) alters significantly the basis upon which this Agreement was negotiated;

either party may, if the dispute cannot be settled in direct negotiations, refer the matter directly to an arbitration board constituted under Article 8 of this Agreement, by-passing all other steps in the grievance procedure.

The arbitration board shall decide whether or not the Board has introduced, or intends to introduce a technological change, and upon deciding that the Board has or intends to introduce a technological change the arbitration board:

- (a) shall inform the Minister of Labour of its finding; and
- (b) may then or later make any one or more of the following orders:
 1. that the change be made in accordance with the terms of the Agreement unless the change alters significantly the basis upon which this Agreement was negotiated;
 2. that the Board will not proceed with the technological change for such period, not exceeding ninety (90) days, as the arbitration board considers appropriate;
 3. that the Board reinstate any employee displaced by reason of the technological change;
 4. that the Board pay to that employee such compensation in respect of the displacement as the arbitration board considers reasonable.

The Library Board will give to the Union in writing at least ninety (90) days' notice of any intended technological change that:

- (a) affects the terms and conditions or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Agreement applies, and

- (b) alters significantly the basis upon which this Agreement was negotiated.

ARTICLE 10: GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.1 Crossing Picket Lines

- (a) It is hereby agreed between the parties to this Agreement that no employee will be required to enter any building, property or business where a Picket Line is legally established under the Statutes of the Province of British Columbia, it being understood that adequate arrangements will be permitted in cases of emergency.
- (b) The parties agree that there will be no reprimands or disciplinary action taken against any of the employees by virtue of their participation or non-participation on picket lines.

10.2 In Event of City and District Amalgamation

In the event of a vote in favour of amalgamation in both the City and District of North Vancouver, there will be established, within thirty (30) days of the execution of the City and District uniting agreement, a joint committee of Management and Labour consisting of one to be appointed by each of the two Councils and two to be appointed by the Union to consider and make recommendations with respect to matters dealing with the integration of employees whose positions are affected by the amalgamation.

10.3 Changes Affecting the Agreement

The Board agrees that any reports or recommendations made to the Library Board dealing with matters covered by this Agreement including recommendations for changes in method of operation that may affect wage rates, work loads or reduction of employment will be communicated to the Union at such interval before they are dealt with by the Library Board as to afford the Union reasonable opportunity to consider them and make representations to the Library Board concerning them and further that if employees are deprived of employment by any implementation of such change, they shall receive priority consideration for other employment with the Library Board.

10.4 Occupational Health and Safety Committee

An Occupational Health and Safety Committee shall be established consisting of three (3) representatives of the Board and three (3) Union-appointed representatives. The Committee shall discuss matters related to occupational health and safety and shall make recommendations to the Chief Librarian.

10.5 Other Provisions

The Schedules attached hereto and marked with the letters "A", "B", and "C", shall form part of this Agreement.

10.6 Car Mileage

Employees will be remunerated for the use of their personal vehicles in accordance with the current City of North Vancouver policy.

10.7 Sexual Harassment

The Board and the Union agree that Sexual Harassment shall not be tolerated in the work place.

ARTICLE 11: TEMPORARY, REGULAR PART-TIME AND AUXILIARY EMPLOYEES

(a) Seniority

1. Separate pools will be established for seniority purposes effective 1978 December 31 in each jurisdiction, i.e., one or more Regular Seniority Pools depending upon existing practice and an Auxiliary Seniority Pool.
2. Access to the Regular Seniority Pool will be extended to:
 - (a) All Regular Full-Time Employees upon completion of the probationary period contained in their respective 1978 Collective Agreement;
 - (b) All Temporary Full-Time Employees upon completion of the probationary period contained in their respective 1978 Collective Agreement;
 - (c) All Regular Part-Time Employees upon completion of the same number of hours as are applicable to a Regular Full-Time Employee occupying a similarly classified position.
 - (d) Any other employee whose 1978 Collective Agreement provides access to the Regular Seniority Pool or Pools.
3. Upon qualifying for a Regular Seniority Pool, an employee will be credited with the full period of service or all hours worked since the first day of employment in one or other of the eligible categories, i.e., Regular Full-Time, Temporary Full-Time or Regular Part-Time. For the purposes of this paragraph 3, the expressions "full period of service" and "hours worked" shall be interpreted by each individual Employer and by its respective local Union in accordance with present agreement.
4. Access to each Auxiliary Seniority Pool will be extended to all Auxiliary Employees upon the conditions set forth in paragraphs (a)5-10 and (b) inclusive.
5. Effective 11:59 p.m. on 1978 December 31, all Auxiliary Employees who were employed during 1978, will be credited with the total number of hours which they worked for their Employer during 1978, and all Auxiliary Employees who were employed during 1977, and who worked 900 hours or more for their Employer during 1977, will be credited with the total number of hours which they worked for their Employer during 1977.

6. As soon as an Auxiliary Employee has worked 1200 hours within two (2) consecutive calendar years, such employee will gain entry onto the Auxiliary seniority list, and will be deemed to possess seniority.
7. Upon gaining entry onto the Auxiliary seniority list, an employee will be credited with the number of hours worked in any class of positions, and will hold class seniority in any such class accordingly.
8. An employee who has gained entry onto the Auxiliary seniority list, will continue to accumulate class seniority in any class in which they work in accordance with the number of hours worked in a position within such class.
9. An Auxiliary Employee's seniority will be lost as the result of a break in service with the Employer which exceeds one (1) year.
10. Auxiliary class seniority as defined in this Article shall be exercised bargaining unit wide.

(b) Layoff – Auxiliary Employees

1. In the event of a layoff of Auxiliary Employees within a class (whether the layoff takes place within a program, a geographical area or across the entire bargaining unit) those employees having greatest seniority within the class shall be the last ones laid off.
2. Other than as might be provided for pursuant to the terms of paragraph (b)1 herein, no Auxiliary Employee shall have the right to bump another employee after having been laid off.
3. An Auxiliary Employee having class seniority, and having been laid off, must, if the employee wishes to be considered for future Auxiliary employment, elect to register with the Employer for future Auxiliary employment in which case the employee will be given preference in hiring for future vacancies within various classes on the basis of the employee's class seniority.
4. Registration for future Auxiliary employment will be made upon a standard form which will be signed and dated by the applicant and which will state the classes within which the applicant would be willing to accept a position. The completed form will be signed and dated by an authorized representative of the Employer, and both the applicant and the Union will be provided with a copy by way of receipt.
5. When an Auxiliary Employee who has attained class seniority, who has been laid off, and who has registered for future Auxiliary employment, also registers a desire to be taken into consideration for Auxiliary work in a class for which the employee does not possess class seniority, the employee shall be taken into consideration for appointment to a position within such new class on the basis of skills, knowledge and ability, and in any case where there is no registered applicant possessing seniority in the new class in question, and where skills, knowledge and ability are sufficient so as to render the employee qualified, then

- (i) if the Auxiliary Employee is the only registered and qualified applicant, the employee shall be appointed to the said position.
- (ii) if the Auxiliary Employee is one of several registered and qualified applicants, the appointment to the said position shall be based on their relative skills, knowledge and ability, and if their skills, knowledge, and ability are considered to be equal, then the registered and qualified applicant possessing the greatest total Auxiliary seniority with the Employer, shall be appointed.

(c) Increments

Where pay ranges exist, eligibility for advancement from one step to the next (increment) shall be based on the number of hours served by a Regular Full-Time Employee for such eligibility.

(d) Public Holidays

A public holiday will be treated as a normal working day for all Auxiliary and Regular Part-Time Employees. Thus, an employee who works on a public holiday will be paid at straight time rates for the normal daily hours and at normal overtime rates for any hours worked in excess of normal daily or weekly hours. Similarly, an employee who does not work on a public holiday will not receive any pay or compensating time off in lieu of the holiday.

(e) Hours of Work and Overtime

1. Normal daily and weekly hours shall be deemed to be eight (8) and forty (40) respectively for all Auxiliary Employees except in the case of an Auxiliary Employee working in a position normally occupied by a Full-Time Employee whose normal hours shall be deemed to be the normal hours of the Auxiliary Employee.
2. For purposes of applying overtime rates, normal daily and weekly hours for all Regular Part-Time Employees shall be deemed to be those of a Regular Full-Time Employee whose position is similarly classified.
3. Regular Part-Time and Auxiliary Employees shall be paid for overtime work at the following rates:
 - (a) Time and one-half (1½X) for the first two (2) hours worked in excess of the normal daily hours in a day;
 - (b) Two times (2X) for hours worked beyond two (2) in excess of the normal daily hours in a day;

- (c) When an employee has not worked the normal weekly hours for the classification so occupied on five (5) days during the week, the employee may work on the sixth (6th) and/or seventh (7th) day of work in that week at straight-time pay until such time as the normal weekly hours for the classification so occupied has been reached and thereafter overtime provisions would apply as per (i) and (ii) above. If the Employer requires an employee to work on the sixth (6th) and/or seventh (7th) day of work in a week the employee shall be paid overtime as per paragraph 3(b) above.
 - 4. No shift differential premiums will be paid to Auxiliary employees unless they are relieving full-time employees on shifts that would otherwise carry such premiums.
- (f) Benefits and % in Lieu of Benefits for Regular Part-Time and Auxiliary Employees
- 1. Auxiliary Employees shall be paid an amount equal to twelve percent (12%) of their regular earnings which premium payment shall be considered to be in lieu of all employee benefits set forth in Article 7 of this Agreement, provided however that those Auxiliary Employees who have gained entry into the auxiliary seniority list shall have such pay in lieu of benefits increased to sixteen percent (16%) of their regular earnings.
 - 2. No other benefits will be provided to Auxiliary Employees unless expressly stated in this Article.
 - 3. A Regular Part-Time Employee who occupies one or more positions with a total regular schedule of core hours each week equal to or greater than twenty (20) hours shall receive the following benefits:
 - (a) a payment of ten percent (10%) of regular earnings in lieu of vacation and public holiday pay;
 - (b) Medical, Extended Health, Group Life and Dental on the same basis as full-time employees except the eligibility periods shall be calendar months; the Employer shall pay their contractual portion of the premiums for Extended Health, Group Life, and Dental, and the employee shall pay 100% of the premium for Medical;
 - (c) sick leave coverage on a prorated basis (including a proration of the maximum sick leave accumulation), calculated on the same proportionate basis as the Regular Part-Time Employee's weekly schedule of core hours bears to the full-time hours for that class of positions; Regular Part-Time Employees shall qualify after the same eligibility period applicable to full-time employees except it shall be calendar months for Regular Part-Time Employees; and
 - (d) WCB coverage on an approximate net pay basis after completion of six (6) calendar months of employment.

4. Where a Regular Part-Time Employee's core hours are increased such that the employee qualifies for the benefits in paragraph 3, the employee's current service shall count towards the benefit eligibility periods.

Where a Regular Part-Time Employee's core hours are reduced such that the employee no longer qualifies for the benefits in paragraph 3, the benefit coverage will cease at the end of the month in which the hours are reduced and the employee shall be paid a percentage in lieu of benefits pursuant to paragraph 5 commencing on the first of the month following the expiry of the benefit coverage.

5. All Regular Part-Time Employees not covered by paragraph 3 shall be paid an amount equal to twelve percent (12%) of their regular earnings which premium payment shall be considered to be in lieu of all employee benefits, including those providing for time off with pay, provided however, that those Regular Part-Time Employees who have worked the equivalent of six (6) months shall have such pay in lieu of benefits increased to sixteen percent (16%) of their regular earnings and shall be eligible for the benefits contained in paragraph 6 below.
6. Upon the completion of six (6) calendar months of employment, all Regular Part-Time Employees shall also be entitled on a prorated basis to the same Bereavement Leave and Court/Jury Duty Leave and on a full basis to the same Maternity Leave and Parental Leave to which Regular Full-Time Employees are entitled, provided that a Regular Part-Time Employee shall not be paid the ten percent (10%), twelve percent (12%), or sixteen percent (16%) of regular earnings when on unpaid leave of absence.
7. No other benefits shall be provided to Regular Part-Time Employees unless expressly stated in this Article.

(g) Temporary Full-Time Employees

All Temporary Full-Time Employees shall be provided with benefits on the same basis as they are provided to Regular Full-Time Employees except the eligibility periods shall be after three (3) months of continuous employment for the Medical, Extended Health and Group Life Plans and after (6) months of continuous employment for the Dental Plan or coverage under the Municipal Superannuation Plan until the employee has been employed continuously for twelve (12) months.

IN WITNESS HEREOF THE parties have hereunto set their hands and seals.

SCHEDULE "B"SUPPLEMENTARY VACATIONS: EXPLANATION OF THE TABLE

The figure to the right of the oblique stroke shows the number of working days of supplementary vacation, and appears in the calendar year in which they are credited to an employee. These supplementary vacation days may be taken in any of the years beginning with the one in which they were credited but prior to the one in which the next 5 days are credited.

Example:

An employee hired in 1997 is in their (11th) calendar year during 2007. The employee in 2007 will be credited with 5 supplementary working days which may be taken at any time between 2007 and 2011, both years included. In 2012 the employee will be credited with a further 5 supplementary working days, etc.

*The working day entitlement is based upon a five-day work week.
